1978 M AWARDS

ROSSEN/NEUMANN ASSOCIATES HONORED FOR CLEANERS HANGER COMPANY OFFICE BUILDING

The Cleaners Hanger Company office building in Bloomfield Township has earned for Rossen/Neumann Associates, Southfield, the firm's second straight "M Award" for excellence of masonry design. The two-story building was designed in brick, with limited horizontal bands of bronzed glass, to respond to the owner's requirement for a prominent, yet conservative, appearance on a very low site. Corners were turned with the brick and glass at a 45-degree angle to give relief to the building's form. According to Kenneth Neumann, AIA, brick was selected "for its warm color and texture, its low initial costs and its low maintenance costs - basically to provide the owner with the prestige building he required at an affordable cost for both construction and operation." The dark brown brick also is used for exterior free-standing walls and retaining walls. Brick pavers are used for all exterior walkways. The steel frame building was completed in November, 1977.

In all, four architects and their projects were honored in this fourth annual "M Awards" program, which is sponsored by the Masonry Institute of Michigan in cooperation with the Michigan Society of Architects. Other winners will be featured in succeeding issues of this publication. They were selected by a jury of Minneapolis-area architects, co-chaired by David J. Bennett, AIA, and Edward Frennette, AIA.

JURY COMMENTS

"...the best of the skin buildings submitted...the architects developed a rich aesthetic system which allows their building to be read in many ways simultaneously....a richly expressive exterior skin with interior development better than what we have come to expect in office design...a very pleasant environment for some lucky office workers."

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"CELEBRATION OF ARCHITECTURE" PHOTO CONTEST HELPS SELECT MICHIGAN'S BEST ARCHITECTURE

In the February MSA BULLETIN I said that one of the Society's goals for 1979 was to have all MSA Chapters undertake a project to bring their own communities in closer touch with the built environment - and thus help us all "Celebrate Architecture". The Society has since developed an exciting program that will allow all Chapters to join in a statewide "Celebration".

Chapter members are being invited to participate in a Photographic Contest whose goal is to select the 50 MOST SIGNIFICANT WORKS OF

MSA BULLETIN

EDITOR DON TOPOLSKY

MSA PRESIDENT GENE TERRILL, AIA

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR ... ANN STACY, HON. AIA

The MSA BULLETIN is published monthly by the Michigan Society of Architects and is distributed free of charge to all members and member firms. Circulation 1200. Address: Beaubien House, 553 East Jefferson, Detroit, MI 48226; 313/965-4100.

ARCHITECTURE IN MICHIGAN. The only requirement is to submit a photograph of a favorite man-made structure - along with an explanation for the choice. Photographs can be any size, black and white, or color.

. Every photograph should be accompanied by a twenty-five word statement explaining why the subject in the photograph has made a significant contribution to the life style and the environment. The photograph should be identified along with its location and sent together with the entrant's name, address and phone number to the local AIA/MSA Chapter.

. Judges in each Chapter will select finalists based on what they consider to be the most significant examples of the built environment. Each winner will receive special recognition including the publishing of their entry photo in the local newspapers and on television. The entries will also be highlighted in a local photographic exhibit.

STATE CAPITOL EXHIBIT CLIMAXES "CELEBRATION"

From all Chapter entries MSA will then choose 50 finalists that will represent the 50 MOST SIGNIFICANT WORKS OF ARCHITECTURE IN MICHIGAN. The whole "Celebration" program will come to an exciting climax during the MSA Convention, October 17-19, in Lansing. At this time the "Celebration" photo competition will culminate with a grand exhibition of winning entries to be displayed in the State Capitol Rotunda. Later on, it is anticipated that the exhibit will travel around the state and possibly become the subject of a MSA-published monograph - or even star in a beautiful set of photographic posters to be made available to the public.

LET'S ALL JOIN IN THE CELEBRATION OF ARCHITECTURE.

Gene Terrill, AIA

MSA . . . NEWS BEAT

YOUR NEWS IS GOOD NEWS IN THE BULLETIN

Those readers who wish to contribute newsworthy items for the April issue of the MSA BULLETIN should forward them to Don Topolsky, Editor, MSA Beaubien House, 553 E. Jefferson, Detroit, Michigan 48226, or call 313/965-4100. All deadline is March 10.

INTERN PROGRAM ADVANCES LOFTY VALUES FOR ALL; ARCHITECTS-IN-TRAINING SHOULD JOIN MSA/IDP

According to IDP Chairman, Art Nelson, MSA is very proud of bringing the excellent Intern Development Program (IDP) to Michigan, a program put together by AIA and NCARB. The program is geared for intern architects who have a professional degree in architecture from an accredited school or have been qualified to take the State Board of Registration's Qualifying Examination. It should be stressed that IDP is open to all architectural interns, not just AIA members.

"In the old days," Nelson commented, "the Master Architect used to teach his apprentices in his studio - something we can't do any more. What IDP does is to offer a generalized program that allows every architect to be the kind of teacher that masters of old were. We ask that architects interested in this program contact their local chapter chairmen expressing interest along with any names of IDP candidates they may know of."

MSA/IDP CHAPTER CHAIRMEN

Detroit Chapter: Joe Fleshner (313/643-0200); Flint Chapter: Auldin Nelson (313/234-0000); Grand Valley Chapter: Jim Van Hekken (313/9007); Huron Valley Chapter: David Mitting (313/663-7480); Mid-Michigan Chapter: Barry Wood (517/394-3800); Northern Michigan Chapter: Jim Offenhauer (616-946-7116); Saginaw Valley Chapter: Dick Forsythe (517/753-3401); and Western Michigan Chapter: Richard Cole (616/345 2145)

Currently chapter chairmen are informally canvassing all of the offices to find out what potential there is for Intern Program candidates. The first step a candidate should take is to write to Samuel T. Balen, NCARB, 1735 New York Avenue, N.W., Suite 700, Washington, D.C. 20006, telephone 202/659-3996, and request enrollment forms. The next step is to contact the local chapter IDP Chairman.

Look for regular IDP "progress reports" in the MSA BULLETIN.

U OF D EXTENDS HONORS TO FATHER GREEN

University of Detroit Architecture Professor Fr. Lawrence J. Green, S.J., retired in January but not until after being honored by his friends in the University, the Detroit Chapter AIA, and the MSA. Over 105 friends attended a special "Honors" dinner January 30 at the University Club in Detroit where Fr. Green was presented a plaque which read:

"In recognition of his effort, devotion and perseverance in the establishment of the School of Architecture at the University of Detroit. We further wish to acknowledge the sincere affection and kindness with which he embraced all his students and colleagues during his many years of commitment to the work of the School of Architecture. Through his dedication and example, as manifested by the alumni of the school, the profession of architecture will be ever enriched with an added dimension of humanity."

Another bronze plaque with similar wording can be found in the U of D Exhibition Hall in the School of Architecture - the hall was named in honor of Fr. Green, the Fr. Lawrence J. Green, S.J. Exhibition Hall.

ARE YOU IN THE PICTURE? ARCHITECTS CONTRIBUTE TO MSA SLIDE SHOW

In the January BULLETIN we asked architectural firms to send us slides of their architectural office facilities. The slides will makeup a special MSA Slide Show to be used throughout the year for various "table top" shows at Career Days, CSI/PC/AIA/MSA conventions, Board Meetings and other Society functions. At the time of publication 24 firms had responded to the request and we thank them for their active interest. The firms are:

Gray/Lundwall Assoc. (Grand Haven); Richard Prince & Assoc., Inc. (Kalamazoo); Louis Dean Kilgore & Assoc. (Birmingham); Rossetti Assoc. (Detroit); Ellis Naeyaert Genhelmer Assoc., Inc. (Troy); Johnson/Johnson & Roy (Ann Arbor); Albert Kahn Assoc. (Detroit); William Kessler & Assoc. (Detroit); Mayotte, Crouse & D'Haene Architects (East Lansing); Smith, Hinchman & Grylls Assoc. (Detroit); Yamasaki & Assoc. (Troy); Warren Holmes/Kenneth Black Co. (Lansing); John Hilberry & Assoc. (Detroit); Louis G. Redstone Assoc. Inc. (Livonia); Peter B. Frantz & Assoc. (Saginaw); Francis A. Faulhaber & Assoc. (Adrian); Graham/Culotta Arch. AIA (Plymouth); David L. Stiffler & Assoc. (Traverse City); Wigen, Tinknell & Assoc. (Saginaw); MJK Architects Engineers Planners (Lansing); Wright Assoc. (Grand Rapids); Roy G. French Assoc. (Port Huron); Spence & Forsythe (Saginaw); Gjelsteen, Seaborg & Jensen Architects AIA (Menominee).

If your firm hasn't submitted slides yet - do it today and become a part of this interesting presentation. Include interior and/or exterior views of your office facility. MSA will be glad to pay for duplicates. Please mail your slides to Don Topolsky, MSA Beaubien House, 553 East Jefferson, Detroit, MI 48226.

LAWRENCE TECH HOSTS ASC/AIA CONFERENCE

The Lawrence Institute of Technology Student Chapter/AIA will play host to the ASC/AIA Great Lakes Regional Conference March 9 and 10 involving students from schools of architecture throughout Michigan and Ohio.

MSA members are invited to attend an opening day lecture with guest speaker James Wines of the Site Group at 8 p.m., March 9. Wines is best known for his designs for the Best and Company stores. His presence is due in part to the efforts of the Detroit Chapter/AIA, ASC/AIA, and LIT Dean of Architecture Karl Greimel. A reception is planned after the lecture. There is no admission charge.

The Conference will continue through Saturday with a business session that will elect a new regional director and assistant director. ASC/AIA President is also scheduled to speak. Rob Rosenfeld, Assistant Director for Continuing Education for AIA will lead a discussion of the Intern Development Program. A party Saturday evening will top off the Conference.

For information about the Conference call Gary Karp, 313/353-9617, or Harry Terpstra, 313/663-3568.

CELEBRATE ST. PAT'S DAY WITH A C.E. COURSE; WORKSHOP FOR MARCH COVERS I.D./SPACE PLANNING

"Interior Design and Space Planning" is the topic for the next Continuing Education Workshop slated for St. Patrick's Day, March 17, 9-12 noon, at Lawrence Institute of Technology Architecture Auditorium. The Workshop is part of a Continuing Education series sponsored by the Detroit Chapter AIA, the Producers Council of Michigan and Lawrence Tech. Cost for each program is $6.

Three speakers will be featured on the program, including: Dr. Barry Wyerman, Owens-Corning Fiberglas Acoustical Research Division, who will talk about "acoustical treatment of interiors"; Virginia Pinnell, Vice President of Design for Contract Interiors, will discuss "open space planning"; and Jack Furlong, Detroit Edison Facilities Planning, will speak on "what the owner expects and receives - utilizing space planning".

The next program will cover "Design for Glass Holding Members, Sealants and Glazing Systems" on April 21. For additional information about the Workshops contact: Jim Shoup, 313/353-0966.

THIS MONTH'S THIRD THURSDAY IS MARCH 15

"PAINTING" EXHIBITION DATE CHANGED TO MAY

The Exhibition of Paintings by Gretchen Minnhaar of Grand Rapids will be featured May 23 in the Beaubien House - instead of March 15 as reported in the February BULLETIN. The regular Third Thursday gathering for this month will be held March 15 beginning at 5 p.m. Special guests at this Third Thursday will be past presidents of the Detroit Chapter AIA, and members of WALD and their husbands. A special invitation is being extended to new members to attend this gathering. However, all MSA members are most welcome. Please let us know if you are planning to attend Third Thursday by calling 313/965-4100. Third Thursday is an excellent opportunity for members to stop at the Beaubien House for good conversation and refreshments.

"GOVERNMENT DAY" GIVES OPPORTUNITY FOR DESIGN PROS TO BECOME CITIZEN LOBBYISTS

Design professionals can learn how to become "Citizen Lobbyists" by attending the 1979 Michigan Government Day Program in Lansing on March 14. This Program provides the opportunity to learn about key legislative issues, meet your legislators, and make a commitment to a regular contact with them. As a Citizen Lobbyist you can make a difference by being able to contact specific legislators when an important issue arises.

The Government Day takes on added significance when you consider that this year the Michigan Legislature has seven new senators and 26 new representatives. State legislators are making more and more decisions that directly affect you; for example, rewriting the Registration Act in a way that could affect reciprocity, and raising Workers' Compensation rates without necessary reforms.

Government Day fee is $20.00 which includes registration, reception and lunch. Please fill out the accompanying form and return to the Michigan CEC office by March 5, 1979. LET'S ENCOURAGE ALL MSA MEMBERS TO HELP MAKE THE MARCH 14 GOVERNMENT DAY A SUCCESS!

DETROIT CHAPTER . . .

PUBLIC EDUCATION COMMITTEE NEEDS YOUR HELP

The Public Education Committee of the Detroit Chapter AIA is currently trying to assemble several packages of information which will be made available for individual committee speaking assignments. In our efforts to collect information we find that we are in dire need of slides, models and presentation boards. Please contact this Committee if you can donate items of this nature for our use.

Our February call for interested members has not filled some very important areas of Committee coverage. If you are interested in a liaison position between the P/E Committee and community interest groups, professional associations or state and local educators, contact John Malak at 964-3240 at your convenience.

WHEN FILLING OUT SUPPLEMENTAL DUES

All members have been mailed Supplemental Dues' invoices which are to be filled out and mailed back to MSA. Please note that on each invoice there is a space for firm name: please make certain that this is filled out completely. The information relative to name, address and firm on the invoice will be used to update our membership roster in the 1979 MSA Handbook for the Construction Industry.

1979 ARCHITECTURAL SALARY SURVEY AVAILABLE

The Employee-Management Relations Committee of the Consulting Engineers Council has released a "Salary Survey-1979" which is now available to architectural firms at MSA Headquarters. This year members of the Michigan Society of Architects and the PEPP Section of the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers participated in the survey. Forty-eight architectural firms gave salary data for 547 employees. Fifty-two consulting engineering firms sent salary information on 2,393 employees. Several multi-discipline firms reported both architectural and engineering personnel in the engineering categories.

To get your copy free of charge phone 313/965-4100 or stop in the MSA Beaubien House, 553 East Jefferson, Detroit.

MASONRY INSTITUTE ANNOUNCES 1979 OFFICERS

The Masonry Institute of Michigan has named its officers for 1979. They are: Frank J. Soave, re-elected to his second one-year term as President; Edwin E. Viall, Vice President; Roy Seelbinder, Secretary; Francis Costella, Treasurer; Gesue (Joe) Forte, Assistant Secretary; and Dwight Lewis, Assistant Treasurer.

Edwin Viall was re-elected to a new three-year term on the Board of Trustees. Others re-elected to the Board were John W. Hart and Albert Hazewinkel. Also elected to a three-year term was John Gleeson.

The Masonry Institute is the educational, technical service, and promotional arm of the state's masonry construction industry.

DESIGN MAGAZINE PLANS LIGHTING SEMINAR

Abe Feder, America's best-known and most respected lighting authority, will conduct a special two-day Lighting Seminar Workshop in New York on April 17 and 18, at the Fashion Institute of Technology Auditorium. Cost of the program is $295.00 and advance registration is suggested. The Seminar was originally planned for February.

This program, under the sponsorship of Interior Design Magazine, has been developed to give architects and interior designers the answers to the many lighting problems they face in both contract and residential work. For further information call Virginia Evans, 212/593-2100.

SIA ESTABLISHES GREAT LAKES CHAPTER

A Great Lakes Chapter of the Society for Industrial Archeology (SIA) was recently established. A meeting is planned in Detroit the first weekend in June to elect officers and to plan future Chapter activities. Anyone wishing to become a member or to receive additional information should write to John Bowditch, Curator, Power and Shop Machinery, Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, Michigan 48121.

SIA is a professional society dedicated to the study and preservation of the physical remains of industry, technology, and engineering in North America. The Society's membership includes archeologists, architects, engineers, historians, and preservationists - encouraging a multi-disciplinary approach to this field of study.

CHICAGO CHAPTER AIA STAGES "INFO FAIR"

The Industry Foundation of the American Society of Interior Designers will sponsor an "Info Fair" on March 14 at the Apparel Mart Tempo Eight (Eighth Floor) in Chicago. The event is co-sponsored by the Chicago Chapter AIA and IBD Midwest Chapter.

A one-time admission fee covers entrance to exhibits, seminars, and breakfast. Advance reservation prices are $4.00 for students and professionals. Charges at the door are $4.00 for students and $5.00 for professionals. For additional information contact: ASID-IF Info Fair '79, 620 Merchandise Mart, Chicago, ILL. 60654, telephone 312/467-5080.

NTHP SPONSORS SIXTH FILM/VIDEO COMPETITION

The National Trust for Historic Preservation is sponsoring the Sixth National Film and Video Competition which will honor six $1000 prize winners at its annual meeting in October 1979 in San Francisco. The goal of the Competition is to encourage productions by student and professional producers that visually interpret preservation of the built environment in the United States.

The Competition will recognize excellence in film and video productions that develop themes in any of the following categories: People and Preservation; Planning and Preservation; and Preservation for the Public. All films must be 16mm and have optical or magnetic tracks if sound is used. Videotapes must be 3/4-inch cassette format. Length should be no more than 30 minutes. Productions must have been completed since January 1978. Submit requests for additional information and entry forms to: Audio-visual Assistant, National Trust for Historic Preservation, 740-748 Jackson Place, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006. Deadline for entries is August 1, 1979.

LECTURES AT ART INSTITUTE STUDY MASTERPIECES

Masterpieces of 20th-century American and European art and architecture is the subject of an 11-week lecture series which began February 17 at the Detroit Institute of Arts, 5200 Woodward Ave. The series is called "Studies in Modern Art: 1950-1970" and it surveys achievements in major visual art forms of the period. Lectures are from 1-3 p.m. Saturdays at the DIA's Lecture-Recital Hall. The series is $35, $30 for senior citizens and full-time students. Individual lectures will cost $5. For more information call 313/833-9804.

ARCHITECTS BOOKSTORE BOOK REVIEWS

ARCHITECTS BOOKSTORE HAS IT ALL

The books reviewed in this section are available at the Architects Bookstore located in the Beaubien House, 553 East Jefferson, in downtown Detroit across from Ren Cen. HOURS are 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays. Feel free to phone in your special "book" questions - 313/965-4100.

. THE ARCHITECT AS DEVELOPER by John Portman and Jonathan Barnett (22.95).

John Portman, architect of Detroit's Renaissance Center, has been making quite an imprint on the urban scene in the last ten years. Starting with his revolutionary Atlanta Regency hotel, whose 23-store lobby attracted worldwide attention, he has created new kinds of urban environments not only for hotels but in multi-million-dollar downtown developments for San Francisco, Los Angeles, Atlanta and Detroit. His projects succeed in the marketplace and have set new standards for hotels, office buildings, merchandise malls, and city center designs. This book attempts to show the advantages of combining architectural design and real estate development into a single process, aimed at lasting value, not quick speculative profits.

. SWEETNESS AND LIGHT: THE QUEEN ANNE MOVEMENT by Mark Girouard (29.95).

In the 1870s the younger and more progressive members of the Victorian middle class were in full-scale reaction from contemporary values - from massive mahogany and the monotony of stucco-fronted terraces, from commercialism and industrialism, from male domination and too much church on Sunday, in fact from almost everything that is thought of today as essentially Victorian. The style that was quickly - and inaccurately - christened "Queen Anne" was adopted with enthusiasm by this group as one of the signs of their enlightenment. This book covers the period 1860-1900 in a very interesting and entertaining way. Filled with colorful, descriptive illustrations.

. PRODUCTION FOR THE GRAPHIC DESIGNER by James Craig (18.50).

Here's a book that fully and clearly explains the production of printed matter - written expressly for the graphic designer. The book graphically illustrates everything the designer needs to know about production without confusing him with technical material that he will never use. The author covers the following subjects: typesetting, printing, paper, inks, color printing, imposition - folding - binding, and mechanicals. The book is an indispensable working tool for the advanced graphic design student, teacher, and practicing graphic designer.

. THE DESIGN CONTINUUM by Steward Kranz and Robert Fisher (15.00).

This is a resource book for artists, designers, and design instructors. It contributes new insights into the complex nature of form and space. The "Design Continuum" premise provides a means for comprehending the most abstract art forms, and creates a theory of order out of the otherwise chaotic nature of our visual environment. The conception of the design theory explained in this book answers a fundamental question about the nature of two- and three-dimensional forms as seen in nature, architecture, sculpture, painting, and even simple everyday objects. It is a revolutionary approach to the study of visual form that brings two- and three-dimensional design theory into an integrated whole.

. SPACE, TIME AND ARCHITECTURE by S. Gledion (25.00).

This book is a remarkable accomplishment in that it explores and throws new light on buildings and plans that were underestimated or unknown before this book appeared. It has also proved to be one of the most valuable reference books for students and professionals concerned with the reshaping of our environment. It not only reviews the varied fields of architecture and city planning in relation to an emerging industrial technology, but also shows their parallel development in the visual arts.
