

Today's News - March 16, 2004

American suburbs in for a rough spell. – An urban planner offers a guide to good (urban) living. – What is in store for Toronto's waterfront (and those pesky, almost indestructible grain elevators)? – Miami's performing arts center suffering the Holyrood syndrome (whatever happened to the Bilbao effect?). – A British glass act for Smithsonian. – Telling the Holocaust story from the outside in. – "Gold-plated" arenas are the ticket for campuses everywhere. – A California high school even the students love. – Emerging voices with something to say. – Times Square is 100 (doesn't look a day older than yesterday!). – The architects who designed British Columbia. – Scary news for those of us who spend hours at our keyboards.
