The 2012 TalkModern Lecture Series - A Fistful of

Neutras! In 1929, Viennese-born architect Richard Neutra rose to prominence with his visionary design of the Lovell “Health House” in Los Angeles. The ensuing decades solidified his place as one of the giants of the Modernist movement. TMH has a nearly-complete catalog of his residential works in our Masters section. Come listen to two of Neutra's sons, each with a different view and experience of Neutra's work, his impact on architecture, and his legacy of remarkable buildings around the world.

Raymond Richard Neutra- Preserving the VDL Studio/Residences in Los Angeles - October 4, 7-8pm.

Introducing Raymond will be the former Dean of the Cal Poly Pomona College of Environmental Design, our very own NCSU College of Design Dean Marvin Malecha.

Dion Neutra, AIA- Neutra Architecture: The View from Inside - November 13, 7-8pm. Please join us as Dion shares his personal and professional views of the sensitivity to the relationship of man and nature he and his father called biorealism.

Advance tickets are $12.50 per person per program, or $20 per person for both. $15 per program at the door. AIA North Carolina Center for Architecture and Design, 14 East Peace Street, Raleigh NC. Please arrive between 630pm and 7pm. AIA Members can get self-reported continuing education credit with advance notice to the AIA.
