Alva Horton directs Duke's OLLI Art & Architecture curriculum and is looking for instructors. You need not be an architect. OLLI has a wonderful selection of course proposals already in the works to choose from, or she's open to new proposals. Call her at 252-375-7886.

From NC Secretary of Cultural Resources Susan Klutz: North Carolina House Bill 152 regarding tax credits for investment in historic properties overwhelmingly passed the House. There is also an identical bill (287) being considered by the Senate. Since 1998, over 2,400 historic tax credit projects have been completed statewide bringing over $ 1.6 billion of private investment into 90 of 100 North Carolina counties. Please contact Senators to support H.B. 152 and S.B. 287. Legislator contact information.

MOD WATCH

Mod Watch keeps a watchful eye on the North Carolina buildings you love. You can keep the NCMH community updated progress by checking the demolition/building permits each week.

Dead Mod Walking 2015: The old gal's still standing but we don't know for how long. Please help NCMH monitor when Milton Small's masterful 3515 Glenwood building, first photo, receives the demolition permit online here. The site was approved last year for a three-story 72,963 square foot replacement, second photo.

This Milton Small masterpiece at 912 Williamson Drive, which recently changed hands after 30+ years, is scheduled for renovation by Hilary Farr and the crew of Love It or List It. This could be very good or very very bad for one of North Carolina's best examples of mid-century Modernism. Let us know when they pull the construction permits, here.
