NCMH Executive Director George Smart will present Mayberry Modernism at the NC Museum of History, 5 East Edenton Street, 12 noon, on Wednesday. Free and open to the public.

Betty Silver Howison died last week in Raleigh. She was Executive Director of AIA North Carolina for 22 years and made an honorary AIA in 1973. If you were an architect (or an architect's kid) in the 1960's or 1970's, you attended Betty's well-planned state conferences in the then-new Blockade Runner in Wrightsville Beach. NCMH interviewed Betty in 2013. She was also part of the movie, Moving Midway.

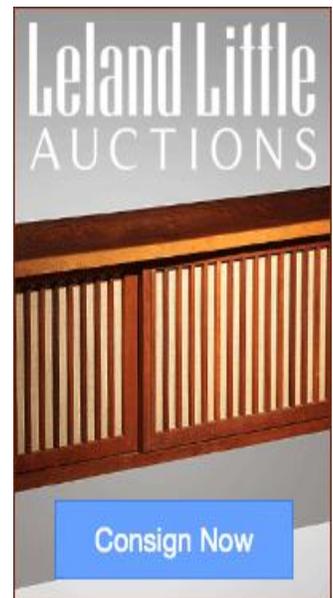

Leland Little Auctions is planning now for a huge quarterly international Modernism and Art Glass auction in March. They are taking consignments now. Contact Luke Newbold at (919) 644-1243 or Luke@LelandLittle.com at before January 29.

NCMH's merry archiving "monks" wine-tasting event processed about 100,000 pages of architecture magazines last week - while sampling pinot noir. Needless to say, a good time was had by all! Special thanks to Virginia Faust, Tamara Yamaykin, Lesley Kingery, and Lesley McAdams. If you'd like to join the monks for future projects, drop us an email.

Me and My Moulton (2014): In this witty animated short film set in 1960's Norway, a seven-year-old girl asks her hopelessly out-of-touch Modernist parents for a bicycle, but the unconventional ways of this architect couple soon produce comical embarrassment and anxiety. Nominated for a 2015 Academy Award. Trailer.
