Architecture You LOVE

Monday, September 10, 2018

North Carolina Modernist Houses (NCMH) is a 501C3 nonprofit educational archive that provides donors, volunteers, and advocates the information and organization they require to passionately engage the documentation, preservation, and promotion of residential Modernist architecture. Learn more at www.ncmodernist.org.

Sponsors

Is your business (food, art, architecture, construction, furniture, fixtures) looking for customers who love good design? Up to 200 people attend our monthly design parties. The next one could be at your office or studio - or at a client location showing off your work. Dates available starting in December. Email Rebekah Laney, rebekah@ncmodernist.org.

News and Events

Wow, hundreds of people clicked today to learn more but the link had expired.

Here's a good link. Let's save this one, folks!

Architect Dick Rice was one of the first Modernist architects in Raleigh NC, back in the day (1950) when you could gather up all of Raleigh's architects for lunch at Ballentine's. His lovely house is up for sale for the first time.
