Modernism Week in Palm Springs, February 19-24: If you're into architecture, you don't want to miss USModernist's wildly popular annual trip to Palm Springs for Modernism Week. There's no other place in America with as many mid-century Modern houses per square mile with thousands of Modernist houses and buildings. Enjoy all-you-can-eat architecture from art to furnishings to lifestyles to fashion to food! Go back in time as we stay at the swanky and just-renovated mid-century Hotel Skylark. Plus you get event admissions, exclusive private tours, eye-popping Hollywood-style parties, and a walkable location to downtown Palm Springs. There's our own free private open bar, available every afternoon and early

Is your business (food, art, architecture, construction, furniture, fixtures) looking for customers who love good design? Up to 200 people attend our monthly design parties. The next one could be at your office or studio - or at a client location showing off your work. Email Rebekah Laney, rebekah@ncmodernist.org.

Join the NCMH Mod Squad! Your membership provides capacity for us to document, preserve, and promote Modernist residential architecture throughout the state and the evening when we aren't touring. Airfare included! Plus, free Uber around town! And an exclusive ticket to USModernist's first benefit party at the Kirk Douglas House! Pretty sweet, eh? The registration deadline is 5pm EST Friday, October 26. Just 4 seats left. Details.

New on USModernist Radio: We're checking out other design podcasts around the country and this week it's the host of LA's Convo By Design, Josh Cooperman. Josh is a speaker, writer, publisher, host, brand manager and product designer with over 25 years in the broadcast industry including CBS Radio Motorsports and Playboy Radio. His masterful podcast Convo by Design tells powerful and inspiring stories of how architects, artists, designers, tastemakers and influencers make a difference in our lives, build their brands, and delight their clients. USModernist Radio is sponsored by Angela Roehl, your special real estate agent for Modernist houses. Listen via iTunes. Listen on Android devices and PC's. View past episodes.

You may have read about a older woman in a wheelchair in a Hillsborough NC Walmart who was robbed in the store by three people. Her purse, containing keys, wallet, id cards, a photo of her nation. Benefits vary by level. Check it out!

This new Starbucks was made from 29 shipping containers. This one was designed by Kengo Kuma It's not the first container Starbucks, though, it's the 40th!

Eero Saarinen: the architect whose buildings continue to amaze us decade after decade. Hat tip to Virginia Faust. This is the TWA Terminal at JFK which will later next year become a fabulous hotel.

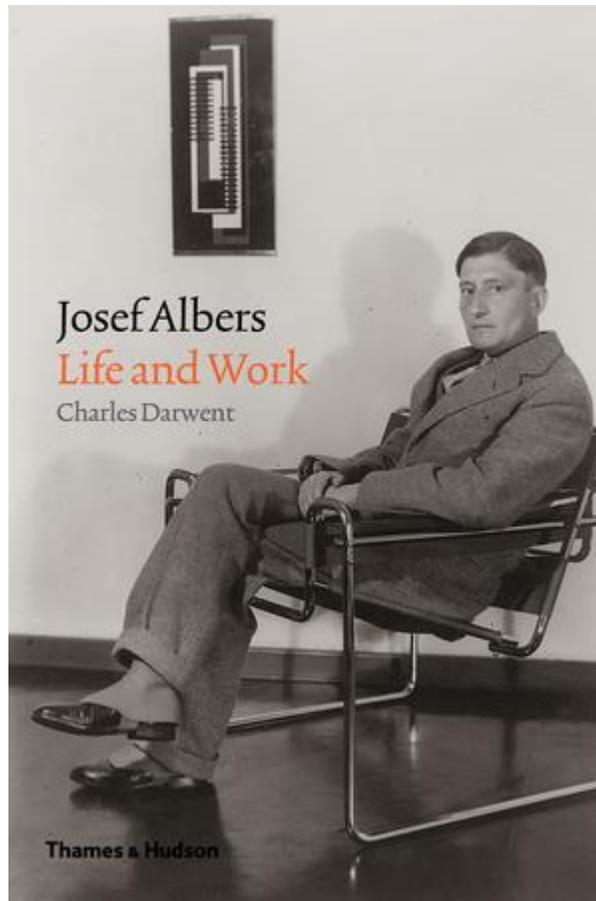

Ten Modernist marvels on the east coast, drawn from the book by past USModernist Radio guest Sam Lubell. Hat tip to Daniel Perrin.

Tuesday, November 6, 7pm: One Big Home, part of the ModHomes Architecture Movie Series, Alamo Draffhouse, Raleigh. Thomas Bena, a filmmaker and carpenter in Martha's Vineyard takes off his tool belt and over ten years documents homeowners and builders and the community as giant McMansions take over the tranquil island. Afterwards, we will have Q&A with Thomas Bena via Facetime! And of course, door prizes!

The Alamo Draffhouse has a full bar, over 50 draft beers, a restaurant menu (the food is great), and service at your movie seat or in their huge lobby. Mod Squad Terrazzo Level members get in free until capacity is reached, so get there early and relax - there are only 100 seats! General public, $11/person. Hang out afterwards in the lobby and catch up with friends! Sponsored by Sarah Sonke of ModHomes Realty, NC State University Libraries, and in situ studio. Details.

New book available November 20: Josef Albers: Life and Work, by Charles Darwent. This is the first full-scale biography of one of the 20th-century's great artists. Charles Darwent combats the fables while telling the fascinating story of an artist, friend, and intellectual. Among Albers's unpublished papers are letters from friends John Cage, Robert Rauschenberg, Richard Serra, and Eva Hesse, as well as fans and collectors ranging from the composer Virgil Thomson to the cartoonist Saul Steinberg. He pioneered the study of color at Black Mountain College in North Carolina, and chaired the design department at Yale University.
