MODERNIST RADIO

ARCHITECTURE YOU LOVE

New - Modernism Week Music: Palm Springs has a huge architecture event called Modernism Week every February. It's a fascinating array of architecture, lectures, parties, tours, exhibits, and the occasional plastic surgery gone awry. Host George Smart was there earlier this year talking with nearly all the speakers, authors, and special guests who make the week (actually 11 days) a blast!

Music is an important part of Modernism Week. George talks with singer-songwriter AJ Lambert, who just released a debut album and performed to rave reviews at Modernism Week; see if you can guess the Secret Word before George says it; plus Joan and Gary Gand of the Gand Band, owners of one of the sweetest mid-century houses in Palm Springs and known across the Coachella valley for their swinging Chicago-inspired blues.

USModernist Radio is sponsored by Angela Roehl, your special real estate agent for Modernist houses. Listen via iTunes. Listen on Android devices and PC's. View past and future show descriptions.

New to the USModernist magazine library: Residential Architect and Architect and Engineer of California

An endangered Richard Neutra house in Los Angeles has been saved from potential demolition! Built in 1956 for painter Robert Chuey and poet Josephine Ain Chuey, the house was bought by Eric Choi and Philippe Naouri who will do a restoration.

Are you a fan of the Amazon detective series Bosch? The character lives in an amazing Modernist house in Los Angeles. Our pal Lindsay Blake, aka lamnotastalker, checked it out and reports that Frank L. Stiff was the architect and Arthur Levin (who wrote this book on hillside building) was the engineer.

The USModernist crew is back from touring Denmark, Norway, and Sweden! Here they are at the Stegastein Overlook outside of Flam, Norway. USModernist hosts two international trips next year: London, Brussels, and Amsterdam in May; and Dubai in November for the 2020 World's Fair.

New to the NCModernist archive: Richard Harkrader.

NEW BOOKS

Available now: Sun Seekers: The Cure of California by Lyra Kilston. Since the mid-19th century, California has lured people through the promise of better health. From ailing families seeking a miracle climate cure to iconoclasts and dropouts pursuing a remedy to societal corruption, the abundance of sunshine and untamed nature around the small but growing Los Angeles area offered them refuge and inspiration. Featured: The Lovell Health House designed by Richard Neutra.

Available June 11: The Foraged Home by Joanna and Oliver MacLennan. A celebration of both sustainability and design, this book presents beautiful interiors filled with salvaged, recycled, and repurposed objects from around the world. In an era when sustainability, living off the grid, and reducing our eco-footprint have never been more important or appealing, The Foraged Home provided guidance to those looking to go beyond the world of mass-produced products.

FOR SALE/RENT

Vacancy, not development, is the enemy of mid-century Modernist houses. Preserve and protect the architecture you love by buying or renting before the bulldozers come a few years from now. Visit our exclusive statewide list.
