Details and tickets.

There are so many ways you can be part of USModernist and NCModernist! Here are some of the things we need:

1. Are you up early or way late searching the web? Why not put those off-hours research skills to use helping us locate and document Modernist houses across America? Volunteer as little or as much as you want, and be part of the websites that are now the largest open digital mid-century modern archives in the world! Contact Archivist Carie Chesarino at carie@ncmodernist.org.

2. Do you know Weird Al Yankovic? Early in his career, he studied design, and we'd like to get him on the USModernist Radio podcast. Contact George Smart at george@usmodernist.org.

3. Does someone you know collect architecture magazines, perhaps hundreds or thousands of them, in their attic, basement, or storage unit? We need certain ones, and we'll pay to ship them to us. Contact George Smart at george@usmodernist.org.

4. What are the most exciting new restaurants and bars in the Raleigh area? We're looking for 2020 host venues for our wildly popular Thirst4Architecture program. Contact Rebekah Laney at Rebekah@ncmodernist.org.

5. Have you got an iconic mid-century chair or clock (Eames, Nelson, Barcelona, Bertioia, etc.)? Donate to NCModernist and get a great tax deduction - and we can pick it up! Contact Rebekah Laney at Rebekah@ncmodernist.org.

6. If you're as frustrated with manual payroll admin as we were, consider joining Gusto. They do everything, including filing all your federal and state reports, for $39/month plus $6/employee. That's a really great deal. When you sign up with our link, USModernist gets a referral bonus we'll use toward new equipment for our massive scanning project. New on USModernist Radio: #126/Southwest Modern: Texas and New Mexico. Amy Walton is from Texas, where she spent 15 years managing nonprofits like the North Texas Food Bank and the Jewish Family Service. Last year, she launched modTEXAS, an initiative to draw attention to Texas modernism and celebrate the people and institutions working to preserve it. Building a coalition of over a dozen nonprofits using social media, modTEXAS has shared thousands of images of midcentury design and architecture that can literally be mapped across the state.

When you think of Albuquerque, New Mexico, you might think of southwest adobe design, or maybe that TV show In Plain Sight which filmed there for five years, but you're certainly not thinking of Modernist architecture – yet. Thea Haver is hoping to change that as co-founder and director of Modern Albuquerque.

Co-host Paige Wagoner Claassen is an architectural historian with the popular Instagram feed Claasshaus, seeking out meaning, beauty, and significance in buildings and history in objects. Co-host Wayne Pond's melodious voice hosted an interview show called Soundings based in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina from 1980 to 1997, interviewing journalists, poets, novelists, documentary film makers, musicians, governors, members of Congress, and tech leaders about their work in the arts, education, ethics, literature, religion, politics, music, philosophy, and even architecture. The shows live on at the National Humanities Center iTunes site.

Modernist architecture tours of Europe ↑

USModernist, an American not-for-profit that promotes and preserves mid-century modernist architecture, has collaborated with Firebird Tours to offer the first modern architecture tours of Europe. Travellers can explore their passion for modernism in eight European countries, including Sweden and Belgium. Each tour includes expert guides and stays in a collection of design-focused hotels. Tours can be booked for groups as small as two people, on dates that suit them. The trips are curated by George Smart, founder and director of USModernist.

Attention air travelers! Starting October 2020, the TSA will only accept drivers licenses that have the REAL ID designation, which is a star. Where the star appears is up to each state. Lines to get this are going to be huge in early 2020, so we suggest get 'er done now. Did you know you can make appointments with most DOT's online and save a huge amount of wait time? Be sure to check the documentation you'll need to bring with you.
