According to the AIA, this is the award's twentieth year. Professionals who have been licensed 10 years or fewer, regardless of their age, are those that the AIA considers "young architects" for the purposes of this award.

The jury for the 2013 Young Architects Award comprised Norman L. Koonce, FAIA, of McLean, Virginia; Albert W. Rubeling FAIA, of Rubeling & Associates, Inc., Towson, Maryland; Ronald L. Skaggs, FAIA, of HKS, Inc., Dallas; John Sorrenti, FAIA, of JRS Architect, PC, Mineola, NY; William J. Stanley, III, FAIA, of Stanley Love-Stanley, PC, Atlanta.
