High-rise housing changing skylines from Calcutta to Chicago, from Las Vegas to L.A. – Gehry on Grand Avenue: "...we're going to have to deliver a special thing, or else I am going to get run out of town." – NYC catching up with Chicago? Roof gardens more than "nice idea" but developers need convincing. – Glancey calls U.K.'s "Demolition" TV show "dangerous ground" that panders to our destructive spirit, but says some of "Prescott's £60k cheap and cheerful ideas" for housing "need handing over" to the show (only Rogers scheme stands out). – Bern's new stadium a feather in Swiss architect's cap (with a few alternations he's not happy about). – Porphyrios's Gothic and Gehry's futuristic side-by-side at Princeton. – Cuba's "Pearl of the South" added to UNESCO's World Heritage sites. – USGBC goes for ANSI accreditation. – Product made with social and environmental responsibility in mind (including copper mesh woven by AIDS-impacted women in Africa for a fair wage).
