Two Shows Not To Miss

Art Deco fanciers rejoice! The 12th Annual Exposition of Decorative Arts, sponsored by the Art Deco Society of Washington, will be held on Sunday June 11, 1995 from 9:00 am to 6:00pm at the Mellon Auditorium, 1331 Constitution Ave. NW. This fabulous show features over 50 dealers with outstanding art deco collectibles, including jewelry, watches, clothing, lamps, clocks, furniture, graphic arts, ceramics, glass, and more. More than just Deco, antiques collectors will also delight in the many "finds" from overlapping periods, including Mission, Streamline, Moderne, Cubism and Fifties. Admission to this one day event is $6 at the door. Proceeds will benefit the Art Deco Society's Restoration Fund, to save endangered buildings. "The Deco Expo may be one of Washington's best kept secrets," said Jim Medeiros, the show's organizer. For more information call (202) 298-1100.

Also a must-attend event is the Deco-'50s Sale being held June 3-4 at the Concourse Exhibition Center, 8th and Brannan Streets in San Francisco, California. Over 200 dealers will be offering merchandise from the 1920s, '30s, '40s and '50s including designer furniture, decorative accessories, vintage clothing, Bakelite, and costume and designer jewelry. For more info. call (415) 599-3326.

For more information call (305) 531-1001. ● Tired of the same old shows on TV? Rent some vintage videos! The Pajama Game with Doris Day is a 1957 delight, or how about The Road To Zanzibar, c.1941 with Bing Crosby and Bob Hope, or Carry Grant and Doris Day in the supremely silly and fun story That Touch of Mink, c.1962. Pop some popcorn & have some fun! ● During the Depression, children found entertainment in the cardboard disks which came in the caps of milk bottles - they would flip them! Today, these vintage milk caps are becoming collectible, and sell for $8-$10 a piece. One source for these vintage cardboard caps - Chick-a-boom in California (213) 931-7441 ● Forget the decorator's fees and delve into your own creativity at William Doyle Galleries' Treasure Auctions. "A Visual Fantasy"

As much a museum as it is a gallery, Art & Industrial Design contains an array of treasures gathered from around the world to delight the eye and intrigue the fancy. A resource for many great public institutions, museums, and private collectors, the gallery features a choice selection of decorative arts of the 20th century. Among the prized items offered are original furniture by such influential designers as Donald Deskey, Gilbert Rohde, Wendell Castle and Isamu Noguchi, major examples of the ivory and bronze sculptures of Preiss and D. Chiparus, Daum crystal, Hagenauer sculptures, glass by Schneider and Lalique, and art deco clocks by Frankel, Weber and Rohde. Rare and often unattainable elsewhere, much of Art & Industrial Design's collection is literally unique -- and all of it is important.
